Meat Science 36 (1994) 446–448

CONTENTS OF VOLUME 36

Numbers 1 & 2

Editorial 1

Consumer Demands: Major Problems Facing Industry in a Consumer-Driven Society 5
G. HARRINGTON (UK)

What do we Need for a Value-Based Beef Marketing System? 19
H. R. CROSS & J. W. SAVELL (USA)

The Future Role of Molecular Genetics in the Control of Meat Production and Meat Quality 29
P. SELLIER (France)

Preslaughter Handling, Stunning and Slaughter 45
N. G. GREGORY (UK)

Consumer Attitudes to Meat Eating 57
N. J. RICHARDSON, H. J. H. MACFIE & R. SHEPHERD (UK)

Sensory Properties and Preferences 67
E. RISVIK (Norway)

The Flexibility of the Collagen Compartment of Muscle 79
R. J. McCORMICK (USA)

Muscle Proteinases and Meat Aging 93
M. KOOHMARAIE (USA)

Optimisation of Tenderisation, Ageing and Tenderness 105
E. DRANSFIELD (UK)

Impact of Animal Husbandry and Slaughter Technologies on Microbial Contamination of Meat: Monitoring and Control 123
J. H. J. HUIS IN 'T VELD, R. W. A. W. MULDER & J. M. A. SNIJDERS (The Netherlands)

Starters in the Processing of Meat Products 155
W. P. HAMMES, H. J. KNAUF (Germany)

Oxidative Processes in Meat and Meat Products: Quality Implications . . 169
J. KANNER (Israel)

Meat Science (36) (1994)—© 1994 Elsevier Science Ltd, England. Printed in Great Britain

Objective Measurements of Carcass and Meat Quality 191
H. R. CROSS & K. E. BELK (USA)

Mechanical Properties of Meat 203
J. LEPETIT & J. CULIOLI (France)

Elastography of Beef Muscle 239
J. OPHIR, R. K. MILLER, H. PONNEKANTI,
I. CESPEDES & A. D. WHITTAKER (USA)

Physical Measurements of Meat Quality: Optical Measurements, Pros and Cons 251
H. J. SWATLAND (Canada)

Low-Fat Meat Products—Technological Problems with Processing . . . 261
J. T. KEETON (USA)

Advanced Technologies in the Meat Industry 277
G. R. LONGDELL (New Zealand)

Number 3

Centralised Bulk Pre-Packaging of Fresh Pork Retail Cuts in Various Gas Atmospheres 293
E. M. BUYS, J. KRÜGER & G. J. NORTJÉ (South Africa)

Cholesterol Oxidation in Muscle Tissue 309
N. J. ENGESETH & J. I. GRAY (USA)

Effects of Exogenous Porcine Somatotropin on the Development of Fat Cells and Fatty Acid Composition in Backfat of Live Finishing Pigs 321
C. H. REHFELDT, K. NÜRNBERG & K. ENDER (Germany)

Quantitative Determination of Type I Myosin Heavy Chain in Bovine Muscle with Anti Myosin Monoclonal Antibodies 333
B. PICARD, J. LEGER & J. ROBELIN (France)

The Influence of High Post-Mortem Temperature and Differing Ultimate pH on the Course of Rigor and Ageing in Pig Longissimus dorsi Muscle . . 345
X. FERNANDEZ (France) & E. TORNBERG (Sweden)

A Traditional Intermediate Moisture Meat: Beef Cecina 365
R. REYES-CANO, L. DORANTES-ALVAREZ,
H. HERNANDEZ-SANCHEZ & G. F. GUTIERREZ-LOPEZ (Mexico)

Improvement of Shelf-Life and Wholesomeness of Ground Beef by Irradiation—2. Chemical Analysis and Sensory Evaluation 371
N. LEFEBVRE, C. THIBAULT, R. CHARBONNEAU &
J.-P. G. PIETTE (Canada)

The Effective Product Life of Vacuum-Packaged Beef Imported into Saudi Arabia by Sea, as Assessed by Chemical, Microbiological and Organoleptic Criteria 381
R. G. BELL (New Zealand) & A. M. GAROUT (Saudi Arabia)

Oxymyoglobin Formation in Meat and Poultry 397
S. MILLAR, R. WILSON, B. W. MOSS & D. A. LEDWARD (UK)

Molecular Forces Involved in the Formation and Stabilization of Heat-Induced Actomyosin Gels 407
E. O'NEILL, D. M. MULVIHILL & P. A. MORRISSEY (Ireland)

Analysis of Meat Pigments with Tissue Spectrophotometer TS-200 . . . 423
T. TSURUGA, T. ITO, M. KANDA, S.-I. NIWA, T. KITAZAKI, T. OKUGAWA & S. HATAO (Japan)

Research Note
Rabbit Growth, Feed Efficiency and Body Composition: Effects of Recombinant Porcine Somatotropin 435
F. HULOT, J. OUHAYOUN (France) & A. D. ZOTTE (Italy)

Book Review 445
